To whom it may concern:

The Samaritan House is a gift from God. When I got out of jail, I didn't have any place to stay. With the help of Jesus Christ, He led me to the Samaritan House. Life is a journey and it's full of choices we have to make everyday. But I can happily say, I'm so glad that I was led here. Alex, the Director, welcome me with open arms, he was like a mentor to me. He knew what I've been through because he been through it. It should be more Samaritan Houses across the world to give people second chances to get back on their feet. Alot of people don't realize how close they're of being homeless without any family. But the great thing about the Samaritan House it feels like family here. We cook, and attend meetings and also do the soup kitchen, and attend A.A. meetings. My experience here I will remember and always come back to donate things for the community and for the rest of my life. I know the Samaritan House is a gift from God because theirs a Church upstairs!! Now that's the truth!!

Sincerely,
