

MRS. HELEN M. STRONG, of Lakewood, N. J., writes :

“I wish to thank you most sincerely and cordially for your prompt and careful attention to the memorial window placed in All Saints Church in Lakewood, N. J. The more it is viewed and studied the more it will grow in beauty and harmony to the generations to come.

“Bishop Coxe has just come to express his approval of the memorial window.

“I have never expressed to you the pleasure that has been given to myself and to many others by the beautiful baptismal gates and screen placed by you in our beloved church here. They are indeed very beautiful and artistic.”

Mr. W. J. Harrison, Lakewood, N. J., writes :

“Please find enclosed Mrs. Strong’s check for the Baptistry and for the church permit me to express our appreciation and thank you for the superior workmanship and courteous attention.”
